Read this text carefully: Peter's hobbies and interests

Peter has a lot of hobbies and interests. He always gets up early so he can swim before school. He swims for two hours every morning. He likes music. He always plays the piano on Mondays and Wednesdays evenings and he often goes to concerts at weekends. He usually goes to the gym on Thursdays, Tuesdays and Saturdays in the afternoon. He only watches TV at night because he loves doing things outside. Although he is tall, strong, handsome and very intelligent, he is usually alone because he is very shy. His best friend is his dog Toby. He goes with him everywhere and they are happy playing games on the beach when it is not raining, because they live in Brighton and it rains a lot there.

But everything changed last week. On Saturday he went to London to visit the British Museum and he met a very interesting and beautiful girl called Ingrid. She was from Sweden and she was having a look at a very old Greek statue. It was love at first sight. They spent the whole day together in the museum and at the end of the day they decided to go to the cinema next Sunday. It was their first date.
