Read the following text and answer the questions that follow:

BUILDING A COLLECTION

Building a collection has been a popular hobby for generations for many reasons but the main one? Well, who doesn't love a treasure hunt?

Serious collectors have a lifelong treasure hunt ahead of them as they're always on the lookout for rare additions to their collection. Some of the most popular collecting hobbies involve exceptionally valuable items and others are just a bit of fun. No matter what you start collecting now though, you never know, it might be worth a fortune in the future!

Starting a collection is a great hobby that takes you to all sorts of places over your life. In an age where you can buy new things at the drop of a hat, wouldn't it be more interesting to collect unusual and hard-to-find items?

Starting a collection is much more enjoyable than simply buying something you want. When you collect something, you'll always be on the hunt for it and will feel great satisfaction when you track down a new addition.

You could easily start a stamp collection and there are many stamps for sale online or in flea markets. Toys, comic books, and baseball pins are all wonderful things to build a collection of that will give you a hobby for the rest of your life. These are the most popular collecting hobbies but there's nothing to stop you beginning any collection you want.
